Kryształowa 41/14, 01-356 Warsaw, Poland, NIP (Tax Identification Number): 5213913595, hereinafter referred to as the "Organiser", is organising an event called "Poland Tantra Festival" (hereinafter referred to as the "Event") at Primavera Jastrzębia Góra, ul. Rozewska 40/42, 84-104 Jastrzębia Góra, Poland (hereinafter referred to as the "Venue").
2. These Regulations set out the conditions of participation and the rules of conduct for persons attending the Event (hereinafter referred to as the "Participants"), including provisions concerning:

a. the Participant's entry to the Event,

b. the rights and obligations of the Participant,

c. prohibitions that the Participant must observe,

d. the rules of liability of persons, including Participants, for conduct contrary to applicable law, including violations of these Regulations,

e. epidemic safety requirements.

3. The purpose of these Regulations is to ensure the safety of the Event by establishing rules governing Participants' conduct and their use of the Venue and its equipment, as well as to regulate the rights and obligations of Participants in connection with the purchase of an admission ticket to the Event (hereinafter referred to as a "Ticket").
4. Irrespective of the provisions of these Regulations, all Participants are required to comply with:

a. applicable laws and regulations, in particular those concerning epidemic safety,

b. the terms and conditions governing the purchase of Tickets through the Poland Tantra Festival Ticket sales operator referred to in §2.

5. The purchase of a Ticket and participation in the Event constitute acceptance of these Regulations by the Participant.

§2. SALE OF TICKETS

1. A Ticket is a document entitling its holder to enter the Event held from 16th to 21st March 2027.

The start and end times of the Event will be announced at tantrafestivalpoland.com.

Each sales phase remains available until the allocation of Tickets for that phase is sold out or until the next sales phase begins.

A service fee charged by the Ticket sales operator may be added to the final Ticket price.

8. For technical matters related to Ticket sales, Participants should contact the Organiser or the Ticket sales operator at: bilety@alchemista.pl.
9. Resale of Tickets at auctions, through bidding or in any other manner indicating the profit-making nature of such resale is prohibited. Any public offering of Tickets for transfer, including as prizes in competitions, lotteries, premium sales or other promotions, regardless of whether such transfer is made free of charge or for consideration, is prohibited.
10. If a person with a disability intends to attend the Event together with an assisting person, each person is required to purchase a Ticket.
11. Only an original Ticket purchased in accordance with these Regulations entitles its holder to enter the Event. A Ticket purchased in breach of these Regulations may be cancelled by the Organiser. A person using a cancelled Ticket shall not be entitled to a refund of the Ticket price.

12. The following rules apply to purchased Tickets:

a. the Ticket holder may receive a full refund of the Ticket price within one week of purchase,

b. after one week from the purchase of the Ticket, the deposit of PLN 900 is non-refundable,

c. the Ticket may be transferred to another person free of charge. To request a transfer, the Participant must contact the Organiser by email or telephone and provide the full name and email address of the person taking over the Ticket,

d. the Participant may request a refund of the purchased Ticket and, until 16th January 2027, is entitled to a refund of half of the Ticket price,

e. after 16th January 2027, the Ticket is non-refundable,

f. each Ticket is valid for one person and is issued in the Participant's name,

g. a change to the Event programme does not constitute grounds for a refund of the Ticket or its equivalent value.

§3. ENTRY TO THE EVENT

1. Entry to the Event is granted to a person holding a valid Ticket. At the entrance to the Event, the Ticket shall be exchanged for a name badge or wristband issued by the Organiser (hereinafter referred to as the "Badge"). The Badge must not be removed. Every Participant is required to wear the Badge throughout the Event. Sharing the Badge with third parties is strictly prohibited.
2. The Organiser may refuse entry to or continued attendance at the Event to any person who fails to present a valid Ticket.
3. In accordance with applicable law, the Organiser may refuse entry to the Event to:

a. a person visibly under the influence of alcohol, intoxicants, psychotropic substances or other similarly acting substances, particularly those that may increase aggression,

b. a person in possession of weapons or other dangerous items, explosives, pyrotechnics, fireworks, firecrackers, fire-hazardous materials, alcoholic beverages or narcotics,

c. a person who is unable to confirm their identity,

d. a person behaving aggressively, provocatively or in any other manner posing a threat to public safety or order.

4. The assessment of objects and their classification as dangerous is the responsibility of persons authorised by the Organiser to ensure order and safety during the Event (hereinafter referred to as the "Security Service").
5. The Organiser may refuse permission to bring or use professional cameras or other professional image or sound recording equipment at the Event. Amateur cameras and mobile phones equipped with recording functions are permitted.

6. Only adults aged 18 or over may participate in the Event.

§4. RULES APPLICABLE DURING THE EVENT

1. The Organiser ensures the safety of Participants and order during the Event, in particular through the Venue staff.
2. The Venue staff may issue their own safety instructions, including epidemic and fire safety instructions, in accordance with applicable law.
3. Participants and all other persons present at the Event are required to follow the instructions of the Venue staff. Refusal to comply with such instructions is permitted only where those instructions conflict with generally applicable laws and regulations.
4. Participants and all other persons present at the Venue are required to behave in a manner that does not endanger the safety of other persons present at the Event and, in particular, to comply with these Regulations. It is prohibited to damage signs, information boards, advertising materials, devices, equipment or any other property located at the Venue. Participants are required to use sanitary facilities only for their intended purpose.
5. Participants and all persons present at the Venue are required to wear a valid Badge on their wrist. Failure to possess a Badge, possession of a torn or damaged Badge, or failure to wear the Badge on the wrist constitutes grounds for removal from the Event. In the event of a broken or damaged Badge, the Participant must immediately report to the Security Service with the damaged Badge in order to have it replaced. Only Badges damaged during the Event may be replaced.
6. Persons who have been refused entry to or continued attendance at the Event, or who have been removed from the Event in accordance with these Regulations or applicable law due to a violation of these Regulations, are not entitled to a refund of the Ticket price.
7. Without the Organiser’s prior authorisation, it is prohibited to conduct any commercial or other profit-making activity, as well as advertising or promotional activity, at the Venue.
8. Bringing or consuming alcoholic beverages at the Event is prohibited.
9. During the Event, the Organiser, Participants and all other persons present at the Venue are required to comply with the provisions of the Polish Act of 26 October 1982 on Upbringing in Sobriety and Counteracting Alcoholism.
10. Lighting bonfires, using barbecues or making any other form of open flame at the Venue is strictly prohibited.
11. Animals may not be brought onto the Venue.

§5. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF PARTICIPANTS

1. The Participant is required to:

a. have a valid Ticket and present it whenever requested by the Organiser,

b. behave in accordance with generally accepted standards of social conduct, including refraining from conduct that may endanger the safety of other persons present at the Event, and comply with these Regulations,

c. comply with orders and instructions issued by Venue employees and the announcer and, in the event of intervention by the Police, State Fire Service, Border Guard, Military Police or employees or officers of other authorised services and authorities, follow their instructions.

2. The Participant shall bear full financial responsibility for any damage caused by them during the Event or at the place of accommodation, including the hotel, to the property of other Participants, the Organiser or the Venue.

§6. EPIDEMIC SAFETY

1. The Organiser undertakes to comply with all applicable epidemic safety regulations.
2. Participants are required to comply with applicable epidemic regulations and with instructions issued by the Organiser and the Venue staff for the purpose of maintaining epidemic safety during the Event.

§7. PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA

1. Participants' personal data will be processed in accordance with applicable law, in particular the Polish Act of 10 May 2018 on the Protection of Personal Data and Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 (General Data Protection Regulation – GDPR).
2. The controller of Participants' personal data is Świadomi Mimochodem Sp. z o.o.
3. Participants' personal data will be processed in connection with the organisation of the Event, including for the following purposes:

a. ensuring the safety of Participants in accordance with applicable laws and guidelines,

b. documenting, promoting and advertising the Event and promoting and advertising the Organiser and sponsors of the Event, including through the use of Participants' images.

4. Personal data processed in connection with epidemic safety requirements, where collection of such data is required, will be retained for the period required under applicable law.
5. Personal data relating to Participants' images will be retained for the duration of the media operated by the Organiser in which such images are used, or until valid withdrawal of consent where consent constitutes the legal basis for processing.
6. Providing personal data is voluntary; however, where such data is necessary for entering into or performing an agreement relating to participation in the Event or for compliance with the Organiser's legal obligations, failure to provide such data may prevent participation in the Event.
7. Participants' personal data may be disclosed to the Organiser's employees, collaborators and subcontractors to the extent necessary to fulfil the purposes specified above.
8. Recipients of Participants' personal data may also include competent authorities and services where disclosure is required by law, as well as entities providing the Organiser with services related to the organisation of the Event, Ticket sales, IT services, hosting, communications, marketing and social media. Where this involves transferring personal data outside the European Economic Area, such transfer shall take place in accordance with applicable data protection laws.

9. Each Participant has, to the extent provided by applicable law, the right to:

a. request access to their personal data and request its rectification, erasure or restriction of processing,

b. object to the processing of their personal data and exercise their right to data portability,

c. withdraw consent at any time where processing is based on consent, without affecting the lawfulness of processing carried out prior to withdrawal.

10. Photographs and recordings made during the Event may be used in materials relating to the Event and the Organiser in accordance with applicable laws governing image rights and personal data protection.
11. Participants may lodge a complaint concerning the processing of their personal data with the President of the Personal Data Protection Office, ul. Stawki 2, 00-193 Warsaw, Poland.
12. The provisions of this section do not affect the rules governing personal data processing by independent Ticket sales operators, as set out in their own privacy policies and terms and conditions.

§8. COMPLAINTS

1. Complaints concerning the Event may be submitted in writing by registered mail no later than 7 days after the end of the Event to the Organiser's address specified in §1 point 1 of these Regulations.
2. The Organiser shall consider complaints submitted in accordance with point 1 within 21 days of their delivery to the Organiser. The complainant should retain proof of postage.
3. Exhaustion of the complaint procedure referred to in this section shall be a prerequisite for pursuing claims before a court of competent jurisdiction to the extent permitted by applicable law.

§9. FINAL PROVISIONS

1. The word and graphic mark "Poland Tantra Festival" is a legally protected trademark.
2. Official programmes and merchandise relating to the Event will be sold exclusively at the Venue during the Event or through sales outlets authorised by the Organiser.
3. Sponsor status for the Event may be granted exclusively by the Organiser.
4. The Organiser reserves the right to:

a. make changes to the course of the Event due to unforeseen and unavoidable circumstances beyond the Organiser's control and to determine and modify the artistic content, substantive programme and schedule of the Event,

b. cancel the Event or withdraw from organising it for reasons beyond the Organiser's control,

c. pursue claims for damage caused by a Participant, including damage to the Organiser's reputation,

d. cancel an invitation, Badge or other document entitling a Participant to enter an area of the Event not open to the public, in accordance with applicable law.

5. The Organiser has the right to amend these Regulations, in particular where necessary to ensure the proper conduct of the Event and the safety of Participants. The Organiser will announce amendments to the Regulations on the Event website.
6. The Organiser shall not be liable for the consequences of force majeure. Force majeure means an event beyond the Organiser's control that makes the performance of obligations impossible or may reasonably be considered to make such performance impossible under the circumstances. Force majeure includes, in particular, extreme weather conditions, infrastructure failures or disruptions, acts of war, epidemics, decisions of national or local authorities and other events beyond the Organiser's control.
7. If the date, programme or Venue of the Event is changed due to force majeure or other reasons beyond the Organiser's control, applicable law and the provisions of these Regulations shall apply.
8. These Regulations are available:

a. on the Event website,

b. at information points at the Venue,

c. through the Ticket sales operator.

9. These Regulations are effective as of 1st August 2026.
